

54 reasons

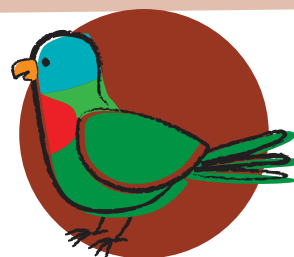

OUR PROMISE TO YOU!

Every child and young person has the right to be safe, happy, listened to and participate in decisions and processes that effect them. We have heard from you about what is most important, and all our workers and leaders take responsibility for keeping these promises. Our promises to you are...

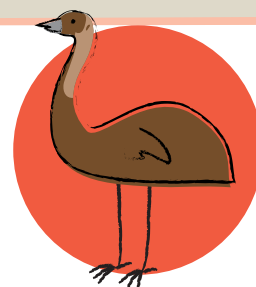

We will be there for you, be kind to you and respect you.

We will make our spaces safe and inclusive for you to play, learn and grow.

We will value and celebrate your strengths and diversity, and all the things that make you, YOU!

We will respect your family, culture and community.

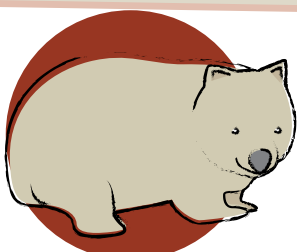

We will help you feel safe, accepted and confident to join in activities.

We will work together and make sure you are heard.

We will do our best to help you get the support you need.

We will welcome you and together make places where you feel like you can be yourself.

We will listen to you when you share your ideas with us.

We will ask what's important to you so we can help you take steps towards your hopes, goals and dreams.

54 reasons

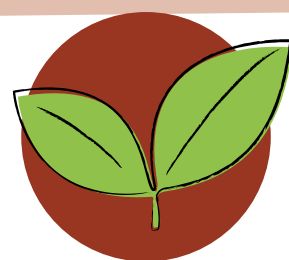

OUR PROMISE TO YOU!

Every child and young person has the right to be safe, happy, listened to and participate in decisions and processes that effect them. We have heard from you about what is most important, and all our workers and leaders take responsibility for keeping these promises. Our promises to you are...

We will be there for you, be kind to you and respect you.

We will make our spaces safe and inclusive for you to play, learn and grow.

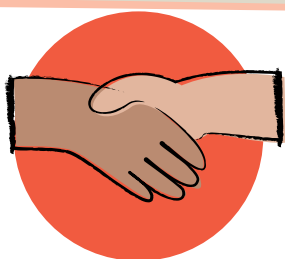

We will value and celebrate your strengths and diversity, and all the things that make you, YOU!

We will respect your family, culture and community.

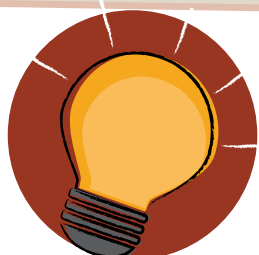

We will help you feel safe, accepted and confident to join in activities.

We will work together and make sure you are heard.

We will do our best to help you get the support you need.

We will welcome you and together make places where you feel like you can be yourself.

We will listen to you when you share your ideas with us.

We will ask what's important to you so we can help you take steps towards your hopes, goals and dreams.

